Salary: NJC points 3 - 10, depending on experience: FTE £22,608pa - £25,613pa which equates to £19,024pa - £21,553pa for working term-time only. The salary is paid evenly each month over the whole year.

Start date: ASAP

The St Marylebone CE School welcomes applications from people of all backgrounds, races, cultures, faiths and genders. The School actively promotes diversity and inclusion across its community and our students come from a wide range of backgrounds: 40% of our students speak English as an additional language; 59% of our students come from backgrounds other than white British.

The St Marylebone CE School is seeking to appoint either a Learning Support Assistant or a Graduate Learning Support Assistant, with a focus on Maths, for starting asap. LSA roles at St Marylebone offer aspiring teachers or those considering a future career in education (eg. Speech and Language Therapy) the opportunity to gain invaluable practical school-based experience, training and development in an outstanding school.

About the role

Working closely with our SENCO and other experienced teaching professionals providing support and guidance, your role will be to:

- implement personalised learning programmes with individual students / groups in or outside lessons
- assist teachers in planning lessons and resources for a particular subject area
- enhance the provision for students by taking responsibility for specific long-term projects or short-term learning activities
- support teachers in monitoring pupils and assessing, recording and reporting on pupil achievement, progress and development
- co-tutor a form group and contribute towards enrichment and extra-curricular provision.

About the School

Founded in 1791, The St Marylebone CE School is an outstanding comprehensive school for girls with a mixed sixth form, serving students of all faiths or no faith. St Marylebone takes pride in being a brilliant place to work and learn: rated consistently 'outstanding' by Ofsted and SIAMS, the School is one of the best performing state schools nationally.
